INDEX TO VOLUME 6

(A) SUBJECT INDEX

Audiology

50 Ear mould acoustics in modifying hearing aid response. I.C. Correll.
167 The use of cortical evoked response audiometry in the assessment of hearing loss. T.J. Redhead, J. Nowosielski, P. Kas.
183 Enhanced N^1 component recorded from the external auditory meatus in routine auditory brainstem response tests. M.E. O'Connell.
368 Tympanometric screening of Asian Australian school children. B. McPherson.
405 Intraoperative electrocochleographic observations of iatrogenic perilymph leak. W.P.R. Gibson.
422 Electrocochleography in the diagnosis of Meniere's disease. W.P.R. Gibson.

Cochlear Implantation

38 A clinical evaluation of a new speech coding strategy for the 22-channel cochlear implant. R.C. Dowell, P.M. Salisman, P.J. Blamey, G. Clark.
244 The bionic ear and beyond. G.M. Clark.
264 Promontory stimulation prior to cochlear implantation. M. Gordon.
348 Multiple-channel cochlear implants for children : The Melbourne program. G.M. Clark, P.W. Dawson, P.J. Blamey, S.J. Dettman, L.C. Rowland, A.M. Brown, R.C. Dowell, B.C. Pyman, R.L. Webb.
354 Preliminary results with a six spectral maxima sound processor for The University of Melbourne/Nucleus multiple-electrode cochlear implant. C. McKay, H. McDermott, A. Vandali, G. Clark.
399 The operative and postoperative complications encountered in 100 consecutive cochlear implant surgeries — the Sydney experience. W. Gibson, P. Lam, B. Scrivener.
467 Revised selection criteria for the multiple-channel cochlear implant. B.C. Pyman, R.C. Dowell, A.M. Brown, G.M. Clark, R.C. Webb, B.K-H. Franz, S.J. Dettman, L.C. Rowland, P.J. Blamey.
472 Evaluation of a sealing device for the intracochlear electrode entry point. S. Purser, R.K. Shepherd, G.M. Clark.

Education

153 Contributing to Otolaryngology. G.D. Beaumont.
158 Training in head and neck surgery. J.D. Hains.
196 The Otolaryngological database. M.S. Mendelsohn.
241 Skills assessment in Otolaryngology. G.D. Beaumont.
335 Statistics in Otolaryngology. R.E. Gristwood.
340 Otolaryngology and head and neck surgery. H.S. Millar.
449 Thinking — within reason! G.D. Beaumont.
451 Statistical analysis in otology. W.N. Venables, R.E. Gristwood.

Endoscopic

109 Flexible fibreoptic endoscopy in adults. T.E. Havas, P.J. Gullane.
250 The development of rigid telescope technology. M.J. Reynolds.
299 Functional endoscopic sinus surgery. K. Kane.
336 The place of functional endoscopic sinus surgery. V.J. Lund.
509 A comparison of transnasal conventional and endoscopic sinus surgery. S.M. Miller, A.M. Goudie, T.P. Singh.
515 Functional endonasal sinus surgery : a modified technique. T.E. Havas, L. Rhodes.

External Auditory Meatus

211 Cancer of the external auditory canal. P. Bridger, M. Baldwin.
220 The surgical removal of aural exostoses. P.A. Fagan.
305 Aetiology of exostoses of the external auditory meatus. M.J. Hunter.

Facial Nerve

53 Facial nerve function in 60 consecutive parotidectomies. V.K. Ravindran.
55 Facial paralysis : uncommon causes. G. Croxson, P. Fagan.
95 Relationships of the facial nerve to the tympanic annulus and external auditory canal. B.J. Williams.
252 The assessment of facial nerve dysfunction. G.R. Groxson.
391 Carcinoma presenting as facial paralysis. Report of two cases. P.A. Bryan, P.A. Fagan.
414 Prognostic factors for facial nerve function after acoustic neuroma surgery. D. Lai, W. Gibson, B. Scrivener.
523 Facial schwannoma : a case of unusual endoneural spread. D. Buchanan, P. Fagan, J. Turner.

Head and Neck

9 Complications of free flaps in head and neck surgery. T. Cooney.
105 Lymph node dissection for head and neck cancer. A.M. Sizeland.
156 Laryngeal cancer : a preventable disease. D.F.N. Harrison.
173 Retrolaybrinthine cranial nerve division for pain control in advanced head and neck malignancy. G. Hannell, P.A. Fagan.
188 Vertical partial laryngectomy. G.P. Bridger.
205 Evolving concepts in mandibular reconstruction. T.E. Havas.
211 Cancer of the external auditory canal. P. Bridger, M. Baldwin.
285 A study of nasopharyngeal carcinoma in Negara Brunei Darussalam. J. Lim, S. Tin.
393 A coin in the neck. A. Sashikumar.
501 The role of crico-pharyngeal myotomy in speech acquisition after primary tracheo-oesphageal puncture. T.E. Havas, G. Marcells.

Historical

2 Sir George Halliday. R. Willis.
68 Lindsay P. Gray. I.C. Mitchell.
68 Rex Vivian Blaubaum. V. Brand.
222 Otolaryngology in Australia through a retrospectoscope. V. Bulteau.
307 Two decades : 1947-1967. An editor looks back. R. Willis.
332 Stephen Creighton Suggit. L.S. Parker.
396 The recent history of the Royal Prince Alfred Ear, Nose and Throat department. J. Lancken.
438 Case of removal of the tongue for cancer by Whitehead's method. T. Fiaschi (1882).
548 The Victorian section through the minute book. R. Willis.

Laryngeal and Vocal

37 Indirect microlaryngoscopy in the assessment of vocal nodules. G.P. Bridger.
295 Primary tracheoesophageal puncture for vocal rehabilitation. N.P. McIvor, E.B. Dorman, R.P. Morton, J. Gillebrand, V. McIntyre.
527 The QEH voice analysis clinic audit. J. Hooper, N. Minnis.
530 Videostroboscopy of the larynx : a useful assessment tool. The speech pathology perspective. A. Russell, J. Hooper.
533 Videostroboscopy of the larynx : the laryngologists perspective. K. Diamantis, P. Clark, A. Russell.
537 A phonosurgical approach to Reinke's oedema. K. Diamantis, J. Hooper, P.W.E. Clark.
540 The value of videostroboscopy in the evaluation of vocal fold paralysis in lateral medullary syndrome. T.A. Frayne, J. Hooper, V. Mattiazzo.

Middle Ear, Mastoid

10 Assessment of function after middle ear reconstruction. R.E. Gristwood.

Middle Ear, Mastoid

10 Assessment of function after middle ear reconstruction. R.E. Gristwood.

32 Bone scanning in the management of masked mastoiditis. G. Croxson.
41 A study of tympanic membrane atelectasis in childhood. R. Willis.
46 The clinical significance of jugular bulb anomalies. G. Hannell, P. Fagan.
58 Development of a new TORP/PORP. B. Black.
60 Tympanoplasty audit : hearing results relative to the duration of a perforation. R. Willis.
89 Aberrant internal carotid artery in the middle ear. B.J. Williams, P. Fagan.
92 Paragangliomas and adenomatous neoplasms confined to the middle ear — diagnosis and management. K. Mah, J. Turner, P. Fagan.
113 Prevention of middle ear barotrauma in scuba diving. N. Roydhouse.
161 Cholesteatoma in children. P. Freeman.
360 An advanced ossicular replacement prosthesis. Assessment of clinical trials in 250 cases. B. Black.
365 Myringoplasty — factors influencing results. N.W. Russell, S. Kleid.
371 Results of modified radical mastoidectomy. D. Buchanan, P. Fagan.
430 Gradenigo's syndrome. A case report. C. Ivers, J. Hallinan, J. Leicester, B. Scrivener.
435 Reconstruction of attic defects with hydroxylapatite implants. B. Black, A. Lomas.
481 Observations on aural cholesteatoma and its management in children and adults. R.E. Gristwood.
493 Decavitation surgery. G.D. Beaumont.

Miscellaneous

3 Aids and HIV infection : clinical ENT manifestations. H. Harrison, W. Gibson, D. Cooper, J. Gold.
13 Symposium of inhalant, food and chemical problems in ORL — 29 May 1987.
85 Antibiotic prophylaxis in nasal and minor oropharyngeal surgery — an evaluation of single dose versus five day prophylaxis. R.J.S. Briggs, H.M.P. Rundle, R. Hooper, W.J. Spicer, A.J. McLean.
154 Hyperbaric Therapy : a historical perspective. D.F. Gorman.
164 Hyperbaric oxygen therapy in otolaryngology. G.D. Beaumont.
242 Penicillin : its first use in otology. R.G. Macbeth.
272 A prospective clinical trial of antibiotic/steroid ear drops and incidence of infection following ventilation tube insertion. H. Coates, A. Sashikumar.
427 The screening of patients for snoring and sleep apnoea. B. O'Reilly, M. Levitt, C. Ivers.

Nasal

126 Experiences with SIgA Circadian production in normal and pathological nasal mucosa. D. Passali, L. Bellussi, A. Di Girolamo.
129 Short term effects of topical sympathomimetic amines on the nasal mucosa — a functional evaluation. T.E. Havas, P. Cole, J. Haight.
202 Hereditary haemorrhagic telangiectasia : a new technique for septal dermoplasty. G.P. Bridger.
209 Nasal septal obturator. P. Bridger, E. Maver.
303 Osteotomies and hump removal. I.H. Warner.
375 Rhinomanometric assessment of significant nasal septal deviation. T.E. Havas, L. Rhodes.
432 Management of chronic vasomotor rhinitis by the application of intranasal cryotherapy. J. Scoppa.
504 Delayed traumatic cerebro-spinal fluid rhinorrhoea. I.E. Cole.

Oesophageal

97 The modified barium swallow in clinical practice. M.S. Mendelsohn.
111 Diagnosis of foreign bodies in the cervical and upper thoracic oesophagus, including a new radiological technique. B.J. Williams.
295 Primary tracheosophageal puncture for vocal rehabilitation. N.P. McIvor, E.B. Dorman, R.P. Morton, J. Gillebrand, V. McIntyre.

Otoneurology

267 The assessment of pulsatile tinnitus. P.A. Fagan.
275 Tegmental encephalocoele as a cause of recurrent meningitis. G.D. Beaumont, K.J. Diamantis.
280 Diagnosis of acoustic neuroma. R. Hooper, C-W. Li, V. Cousins.
291 The large vestibular aqueduct syndrome. P. Freeman, J. Pike.
411 A modified cochleostomy operation for controlling attacks of vertigo in the elderly without loss of vestibular function. W.P.R. Gibson.
414 Prognostic factors for facial nerve function after acoustic neuroma surgery. D. Lai, W. Gibson, B. Scrivener.
419 Vestibular neurectomy : a review. D.V. Pohl.
488 Sudden hearing loss. N.W. Russell.
519 Clinical evaluation of simple harmonic acceleration testing. R. Hooper, V. Cousins, C-W. Li.
546 A factor in the causation of perilymph fistula. J.P. Tonkin.

Otosclerosis

27 Progressive flat sensorineural hearing loss occurring after initially successful stapedectomy. R. Willis.
117 Stapes surgery on young patients. R. Willis.
123 Otosclerosis footplate pathology — primary stapes surgery — a correlative study. B.K. Bkardwaj, S.K. Kacker.
176 Sudden hearing loss 22 years after stapes surgery : a case report. R.E. Gristwood.

Radiology

380 Evaluation by magnetic resonance imaging (MRI) of the prevalence and aetiology of benign paranasal sinus disease. A.M. Whyte, C.G. Mullighan, J. Heysen, S. LeP. Langlois.
388 A comparison of clinical assessment, computerized tomographic scanning, and magnetic resonance imaging in the evaluation of head and neck tumours. S. Miller, M. Khangure, J. Anderson, P. Breidahl.
455 The current status of imaging in otolaryngology. A. Whyte.

Sinus Disease

30 Fronto-sphenoido-parietal congenital cholesteatoma with proptosis. S.K. De.
119 Angiosarcoma of the frontoethmoidal region. S.K. De, A. Basu, Dey.
179 Fungal sphenoid sinusitis. A.W. Forrest.
192 The extended rhinotomy exposure. G.P. Bridger, P.R. Carter.
198 Inverted papillomas : reducing the morbidity. P.R. Carter, G.P. Bridger, R. Crouch.
216 Paranasal sinus cancer with free flap reconstruction. P. Bridger, M. Baldwin.
299 Functional endoscopic sinus surgery. K. Kane.
336 The place of functional endoscopic sinus surgery. V.J. Lund.
509 A comparison of transnasal conventional and endoscopic sinus surgery. S.M. Miller, A.M. Goudie, T.P. Singh.
515 Functional endonasal sinus surgery : a modified technique. T.E. Havas, L. Rhodes.

Tonsil Surgery

278 Cerebral oedema and death after tonsillectomy. C.S. Richards.
343 Guidelines on tonsillectomy and adenoidectomy in children. B. Benjamin.
544 Diathermy tonsillectomy. E.J. Beckenham.
